

interior design

winner
L&L DESIGNS

The owners of this well-proportioned spec house in Sag Harbor asked for a beach retreat with “more than a touch of glam, a place where they could entertain friends and family,” recalls designer Laura Michaels, who responded by creating a mostly gray palette that judge Michael Haverland describes as “soothing and consistent.” Judge Matthew Patrick Smyth lauds its “striking, handsome materials and textures.”

AS SEEN IN HC&G
Hamptons Cottages and Gardens